

Brussels, 24 January 2007

AIR FRANCE AND KLM CELEBRATE OFFICIAL INAUGURATION OF NEW OFFICE IN BRUSSELS AND NEW JOINT MANAGEMENT IN BELGIUM

Today AIR FRANCE and KLM are officially inaugurating their new joint office in Brussels and new joint management in Belgium and Luxembourg. The new AIR FRANCE KLM Brussels office is situated avenue Louise, where 54 staff is based (Passenger Commercial and Sales, Marketing, Human Resources, Controlling, Finance and Communication) and 3 staff from the European Affairs.

The honorary ribbon cutting ceremony has been performed by Mr. Michel Roche, Minister Councillor of the French Embassy, Mr. Rob Zeldenrust, Minister Plenipotentiary of The Netherlands Embassy, Mr. Etienne Rachou, AIR FRANCE Senior Vice President Europe and North-Africa, Mr Bram Gräber, KLM Senior Vice President and Area Manager Benelux and Frédéric Kahane, AIR FRANCE and KLM General Manager Belgium & Luxembourg.

“We are delighted to be here today to celebrate this symbolic occasion, which illustrates the shared vision of our two companies.

We are confident that our teams will benefit hugely from the strategic location of this office as well as being able to work side by side with each other. This enables us to optimise and further strengthen and expand the range of services provided to our customers” said Frédéric Kahane, General Manager for AIR FRANCE and KLM Belgium & Luxembourg, during the ceremony.

One of the main objectives of this merger is to meet AIR FRANCE and KLM customers' expectations. In addition to the many existing advantages, customers also benefit from:

- ♦ A large, complementary network, with 243 destinations worldwide,
- ♦ Combinable fares
- ♦ Flying Blue, an attractive and generous Frequent Flyer Program.

As part of their program to work together more closely, the two airlines have developed local synergies such as joint corporate and travel agency contracts.

AIR FRANCE and KLM recognize their customers' demand for improved worldwide access via the hubs of Paris-Charles de Gaulle and Amsterdam Schiphol.

ABOUT AIR FRANCE KLM

The business combination agreement between AIR FRANCE and KLM gave rise to Europe's number one air transport group in May 2004, based on a holding company and two airlines, keeping their own brands and identity. Together, AIR FRANCE and KLM represent 70 million passengers and a fleet of 564 aircraft. Both airlines offer their customers a combined network, which includes a total of 243 destinations.

AIR FRANCE and KLM are members of SkyTeam, the global airline alliance, consisting of the following ten members; Aeroflot, Aeromexico, Air France, Alitalia, Continental Airlines, Czech Airlines, Delta Air Lines, KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, Korean Air and Northwest Airlines. Through one of the world's most extensive hub networks, SkyTeam offers its 373 million annual passengers a worldwide system of nearly 15,000 daily flights covering all major destinations.

For more information about AIR FRANCE: www.airfrance.com/corporate

For more information about KLM: http://www.klm.com/corporate_en/corporate.html

For more information about SkyTeam: www.skyteam.com

Press Contact AIR FRANCE and KLM Belgium & Luxemburg:

Françoise Dessy

frdessy@airfrance.fr

tel: 02 541 42 58 fax: 02 541 42 42

www.airfrance.be www.klm.be